

Samuel Fuller School Dress Code

Samuel Fuller School’s dress code is designed to encourage an atmosphere that is conducive to learning. Uniforms foster positive student behavior and productivity, encourage a student’s sense of belonging at the school, and promote a positive impression of our school within the community. As with everything that is done at Samuel Fuller School, we seek to bring glory to God through our outward appearance. Along with compliance with the established school uniform policy, students must be neat and clean each day when they come to school. Violation of the spirit of this policy will be left to the discretion of the headmaster. There may be special days or events scheduled at which different attire is acceptable. Parents will be notified of these events in advance. Please refer to the School Uniform Guide in choosing proper attire for your child.

Sweaters, shirts, and jackets with the SFS logo may be ordered from Donnelly’s, Lands End, and French Toast.

Attire with the logo is preferred; however, some other stores (Old Navy, Target, Walmart, etc.) carry acceptable pieces without the SFS logo.
